

The 2016 George Edwards Memorial Event

Gressenhall Farm & Workhouse Museum,

Saturday 8th July

“No roses around the door”

a look at Rural Housing over the past 100 years

2.00 to 4.00 p.m.

At a meeting in the old Workhouse Chapel

Susan Wild

will speak about her grandfather, Alderman Sam Peel, social reformer and friend of George Edwards, who in the early 20th Century, battled against degrading housing conditions in Wells-next-the-Sea.

and

Canon Graham Hedger

a long term champion of rural housing:

former regional chair of Hastoe Housing Association will consider recent approaches to Rural Housing

The meeting will be chaired by

Rev. Julian Pursehouse

Chair of the Methodist East Anglia District

Entrance fee (after 12.00 noon) £2.50.

This meeting has been arranged by the Methodist Church and the local branch of the UNITE trades union in collaboration with the Gressenhall Museum.